

WTAII PLLC Names Ray D. McKenzie as Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Fellow

ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA, February 19, 2020 – WTAII PLLC has chosen Ray D. McKenzie to be a member of the 2020 class of Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) Fellows.

The LCLD Fellows initiative is a landmark program created to identify, train, and advance the next generation of leaders in the legal profession. “I am proud of our firm’s membership in LCLD, and I am very excited for Ray,” said Warren T. Allen II. “He joins a select group of experienced attorneys from diverse backgrounds who have been recognized for their leadership potential.” Mr. McKenzie stated, “I am honored and humbled to have the opportunity to participate in this pivotal program. The LCLD Fellows Program has an impressive list of alumni, and it plays a meaningful role in preparing and developing diverse attorneys for leadership roles at their firms and companies. I am looking forward to learning from others in the program, and I hope I am able to contribute to their growth and development as well.”

According to LCLD President Robert J. Grey, Jr., the LCLD Fellows Program offers participants “a year-long, in-depth program devoted to relationship-building, in-person training, peer-group projects, and extensive contact with LCLD’s top leadership and the best teachers in the business.”

Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization of more than 320 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners who are personally committed to creating a more diverse and inclusive legal profession. The LCLD Fellows Program, which has trained more than 1,600 attorneys since 2011, is one of LCLD's most important initiatives.
