THIRD SKADDEN ALUMNUS, GARY A. RUBIN, JOINS WTAII PLLC

Gary A. Rubin has joined WTAII PLLC as a member of the firm. Mr. Rubin has more than twenty years of experience representing individuals and companies in corporate investigations and government enforcement proceedings involving anti-corruption, money laundering, antitrust, commodities, and securities laws. Mr. Rubin also litigates civil matters in state and federal courts.

Prior to joining WTAII, Mr. Rubin spent seventeen years at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP where he worked with WTAII's co-founders Warren T. Allen II and Ray D. McKenzie. Most recently, Mr. Rubin served as an outside consultant for the in-house litigation group of a global financial services company, where he advised on government investigations and class action litigation related to ERISA and securities laws.

Mr. Allen and Mr. McKenzie launched WTAII in the summer of 2019. Mr. Allen spent twelve years at Skadden before founding WTAII. Mr. McKenzie spent more than five years at Skadden and more than four years as an Assistant United States Attorney before co-founding WTAII with Mr. Allen.

“Ray and I are thrilled to work with Gary again,” said Mr. Allen. “Our long-term plan is to assemble a team of exceptional lawyers like Gary by prioritizing positive relationships, giving attorneys as much control over their practices as possible, and throwing most of the standard law firm business model out the window.” Mr. McKenzie added, “Gary, Warren, and I worked on a number of matters together during our time at Skadden, and we are excited to have Gary on our team again.”

Mr. Rubin will be working remotely from Dallas, Texas. “Even before the pandemic, we designed our firm’s IT infrastructure so attorneys could seamlessly work together from anywhere. Facilitating remote work was one way we thought we could compete for talent as attorneys increasingly need that flexibility to help keep other aspects of their lives in balance,” explained Mr. McKenzie.
